

It would be a disgrace to American Democracy to allow a right wing nutcase like Rupert Murdoch to control the media that provide information and ideas to generations of Americans. The FCC should be ashamed of even thinking of something this stupid.